people who are working in the cities now were born and reared on the farms and know how to do farm work. They know the advantages and the disadvantages of the farm and know the profits to be made on the farm as compared with those they are making in the city. As long as the trend of population is from the farm to the city it may be set down as a fact that the financial rewards, taking into account living conditions, are greater in the city than on the farm.

Chandler Morse, son of Attorney and Mrs. E. C. Morse, was reported Friday morning as dangerously ill. Complications having arisen following an attack of scarlet fever, which in itself was not severe.

Malcolm M. Willey who will be a member of the graduating class at Clark college, Worcester, next month, is spending the week-end at his home in Putnam.

Clerk E. M. Warner of the superior court will be in Williamstown today to attend to matters relating to work in the superior court in that city.

Members of Putnam range have been invited to attend a "Neighbors' night" meeting to be held by Quinnetts at the home of Thompson, Tuesday evening of next week.

The Memorial Sunday service at the Congregational church tomorrow will be attended by members of the American legion and other patriotic societies.

Next Tuesday's special city meeting is to see if the voters will appropriate $3,500 for sewer extensions from the corner of Woodstock avenue and Providence street, westerly for a distance of 1300 feet to a point opposite the home of Ray Bosworth.

Mayor A. W. Marcy said Friday morning that he has been in conference this week with State Highway Commissioner Bennett and members of the public utilities commission at Hartford, relative to getting the trolley tracks through Grove street lowered to the level of the new cement paving, above which the tracks, running through the center of the street, rise as much as ten inches in some places. Mayor Marcy said that Commissioner Bennett told him that "the agreement with the weavers who went on strike there."

Grove street residents are beginning to enter complaints that motorists are using the new cement roadway through that thoroughfare as a speedway. The police have noted the complaints and will be on the watch for the speeders.

With the return of the striking dressers to their work at the mill of the French River Textile company at Mechanicville the labor difficulties experienced there during the past month have been ironed out and the plant is running full blast again. Some concessions were granted the dresser tenders, along the line made in reaching an agreement with the weavers who went on strike there.

There is satisfaction among members of the town school committee and others having to do with keeping up the educational work of the town in the fact that signed contracts have been returned by all but one of the teachers who were re-elected and to whom contracts were sent.

Rev. Boynton Merrill, pastor of the Congregational church and chaplain of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania during the war, will deliver the Memorial Sunday address at Phoenixville when the town of Eastford holds its exercises in honor of the soldier dead tomorrow. The exercises in that town are to be held on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Harriet S. Knowlton, 89, who died this week in West Ashford, was a sister of Randall Bullard of this city.

JEWETT CITY

If the weatherman hands out a fair day Monday, the borough will do the best. There is plenty of enthusiasm and everybody seems to be determined to do a grand and fitting success. The line will be on South street, the right resting on Main. On the march down Main street, a halt will be made at St. Mary's church, where the ceremony of unveiling a marker will take place. Here the march will be an address and song arranged by the D. D. R. and the Lower Jewett City, St. Mary's and Baptist churches will be visited in turn, where graves will be decorated. At the Baptist church Dr. G. H. Jennings, the marshal of the day, will halt the line and with a squad of 12 will decorate the graves in the cemetery. At the Methodist church, following this will be the edifice in St. Mary's church hall.

The formation of the parade will be as follows: Band, General Army, American Legion, Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans, D. A. R., Woman's Relief corps, Red Cross, clergy, town officials, borough officials, children of schools of the town.

The following notices have been sent out to every member of the American Legion and it is believed there will be response to a man.

At a special meeting held May 24, it was voted to meet at the Legion rooms Sunday, May 30th, at 6:30 p. m., standard time, 7:30 p. m., new time, and from there march in a body to attend the Memorial services held at St. Mary's Catholic church on the same evening. It was also voted to wear uniforms at the Memorial day parade, which forms at 9 a. m., new time, Monday, May 31st, in front of the town hall. Come for the parade, even if you haven't a uniform. Be present Sunday night and Monday morning, as the success of the parade depends on the number of ex-service men who attend. Bring along any ex-service men who will march. If you are unable to march Memorial day, notify secretary at once.

JOHN T. BARRY, Secretary.

The Memorial day address will be delivered by Rev. J. J. McCabe at St. Mary's church, Sunday evening, May 30th, 7 o'clock, standard time. This is a public meeting, to which every patriotic person has been invited, to do honor to the heroic dead of all wars.

Rev. James B. Aldrich will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church, Sunday morning. Subject, The Message from Above. Epworth league at 8; leader, Mrs. Aldrich. Topic, Being a Good Comrade. Talk by the pastor on Apostolic Christianity at 7. The meeting will close in time for all to attend the union Memorial service at St. Mary's church.

The pastor, Rev. Clinton B. Andrews, will preach at the Congregational church, Sunday morning. Miss Ethel Fluke will lead the Y. P. S. C. E. at 7. Topic, Being a Good Comrade. Ample time will be given at the close of this service for all to get seats at the union service addressed by Rev. J. J. McCabe at St. Mary's church.

Subject of the message to the Juniors at the Baptist church will be A Bright Pin: to the Seniors, A New Universe. New Heaven, New Earth—The Possession of That World. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15. At 7, evening service: topic of sermon, Mothers of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow. Rev. M. D. Fuller, pastor.

Miss L. I. Foster is at home after a long visit in Brooklyn and Washington, D. C. Miss Foster's sister in Brooklyn has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Paul and Miss Paul are in Middletown for Memorial day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Strickland.

Pickered are biting finely in the local ponds and several good strings have been caught. One fisherman hooked a bass, yet the law is not off on bass until June 30. He says he will attach a notice to his hook warning bass to keep away, stating that he is fishing for pickered only.

James Cray met with a heavy loss one day this week. A favorite and valuable horse became mired in a swamp. Men worked for several hours with ropes and tackle, but with no success. The animal had to be killed.

Dominick Morinella was in the town court Friday morning charged with the theft of a quantity of cloth from the Apolook bleachery. Judge A. M. Brown bound him over to the next term of the superior court in September. He secured bonds of $1,000. Many have tried to steal cloth from the company, but they have never got away with it yet. Extra precaution to prevent these thefts will be adopted at once by the Apolook company.

E. F. Burleson and daughter Jean are at home. Mr. Burleson has been the guest of his son, Charles of Schenectady, N. Y., and Miss Burleson has been visiting in New Canaan, Conn.

TOWN CLERK APPOINTS
D. T. SHEA SUB-REGISTRAR

Town Clerk Charles S. Holbrook has appointed Daniel T. Shea of Shea & Burke a sub-registrar of vital statistics, which will empower Mr. Shea to issue burial and removal permits the same as the town clerk.

The appointment is made especially for the accommodation of those cases where the issue of burial or removal permits might be wanted over Saturday and Sunday. Since the town clerk's office is closed always all day Sunday and for half a day on Saturday through the summer months, the appointment of a sub-registrar who can be found at his regular place of business or at his home when the town clerk's office is closed will often be a great convenience.

CAPOGNA ARRESTED ON COMPLAINT FROM STONINGTON

"Patsy" Capogna of Groton, who was recently acquitted of the superior court on the charge of conspiracy in the robbery of the Glen woolen mills at Norwich, was arrested Thursday evening at the ferry slip in Groton by Sgt. Charles Yerring and Patrolman William Levy at the request of the Stonington police.

Capogna is wanted in Stonington on a charge of breaking and entering in that town. Officers from Stonington came after the prisoner soon after his arrest and took him back with them.

JUNE WHITE SALE

Our Annual June Sale of Silk and Muslin Undergarments
(Of the Better Kind)

STARTS SATURDAY MORNING

It has been many years since we have been able to offer such values as we are offering at this sale. It would be practically impossible for us to tell you how good these values are. They must be seen to be appreciated. Everything is included in this sale from the cheapest undergarment, the hand-made and embroidered Philippine goods up to the finest Silk Garments.

We will refrain from mentioning prices in this advertisement, as prices mean nothing as compared to quality. But we want to impress upon your mind that the prices have been cut on every garment in stock.
